

Inna Sarac, MPA
Management Analyst
Medical Examiner-Coroner

Inna Sarac received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master's degree in Public Administration from California State University, Northridge. She has been working for the County of Los Angeles for thirteen and a half years. During these 13 years, she worked for the Department of Public Social Services, followed by the Department of Mental Health, and she presently works for the Department of Medical Examiner-Coroner as a Management Analyst. Over the past six years, since she has been working for the Department of Medical Examiner-Coroner, she has been coordinating multiple assignments for the Department. She manages the grants and assists in the Contracts section. Inna is the Volunteer/Intern Coordinator for the Department. Also, she is the Department's representative in the Roadmap to a Sustainable Waste Management Future Subcommittee, Small Business Contracting Advocate, and a Floor Warden - Emergency Responder in case of an emergency for the Department.

Inna is very proud to be a part of the Quality and Productivity Commission, serving as the PQA Co-Chair on the PMN Executive Committee and she is the Department Productivity Manager.