

Stanley Yen
Personnel Officer
District Attorney's Office

Stanley Yen is currently the Personnel Officer for the District Attorney's Office having immediate responsibility of managing all aspects of a comprehensive personnel program within the Department. He has been an active member of the Productivity Managers' Network (PMN) since 2015, has served as a Productivity Manager for the Department of Human Resources, and now for the District Attorney's Office. He also serves on the Productivity Investment Board Advisory Committee for the past five years. As part of the PMN, Stanley enjoys networking with other Productivity Managers and exchanging innovative ideas and strategies to enhance the delivery of County services.